

GBER Special Issue 2021

Old City, New Lives:
Mobility, Place Identity and the Transnational Communities

Edited by Tasleem Shakur & Konstantina Zerva

Cover Design:
Konstantina Zerva

Cover Photo:
A relatively recently settled trans-local community, near the city centre of the Greek's capital in Athens. Photo taken by Tasleem Shakur in 2018.

Contents

Editorial

- Tasleem Shakur & Konstantina Zerva 1-6
An Ever-growing ruptured world?
Dysfunctional mobility, nonsensical identity and the unsettled transnational communities of the old cities

Commentary

- Magda Sibley 7-12
European Diaspora in Moroccan Medinas: Riads and Spas and the formation of New Hybrid Heritage

Articles

- Beata Labuhn 13-44
Refugees in the Monasteries of Rome: Two Cases of Gentle Transformation of Places and Communities (2013-2018)
- Niroshan Ramchandran 45-55
Identity Reconstruction of Albanian Migrants in Konista, Greece
- Konstantina Zerva and Najjim el Ahbouch 56-71
Me, myself and I: The existence of local, immigrant and tourist identity
- Apurba K. Podder and Nasreen Hossain 72-92
The Placeless dimension of Place-Making: A Case of Nilkhet Area, Dhaka

Conference Report

- Eamon Reid 93-99
Old City, New Lives:
Mobility, Place Identity and the Transnational Communities